

Compassion, Connection and Authentic Presence in Psychotherapy:

A Salon

Sponsored by local community members of The American Academy of Psychotherapists (AAP)

Since its founding in 1954 by pioneers such as Carl Rogers, Fritz Perls, Albert Ellis and Carl Whitaker, The American Academy of Psychotherapists has been committed to understanding and supporting the whole person of the psychotherapist. We are hosting this salon to offer opportunities to experience and explore the therapist variables of compassion, connection and authenticity that underlie healing relationships.

Date: October 4, 2009

Time: 2-6 PM

Place: Carolina Friends School
(between Durham and Chapel Hill)
Upper School Meeting Hall

- Directions: <http://www.cfsnc.org/AboutCFS/directions.htm>
- Address: 4809 Friends School Road, Durham, NC

Format:

Welcome

- Introduction to the AAP by Jon Farber, PhD, Pat Webster, PhD, and Tyler Beach, LCSW
- Information about the upcoming AAP Institute & Conference in Sarasota, Florida by Lori Oshrain, PhD, Conference Co-Chair
- Information about the $1000 student scholarship available

Process Group with attention to our theme

- As we share our experiences of peer support, we will explore how we as therapists can enhance our compassion, connection and authentic presence

Informal Potluck

- We will provide drinks and some food. Please feel free to bring food that is as simple or complex as you like.

RSVP by September 30 to Tyler Beach LCSW, at 919-428-8901, email TylerBeachLCSW@gmail.com

For any further information, contact: Pat Webster, PhD at 919-949-1788, or email PatinCH@aol.com
Jon Farber, PhD at 919-489-9108 or email JonFarber@aol.com

For more about AAP, go to <http://www.aapweb.com/index.html>.